GIANTS . . . Continuing the Legacy.

Like the majestic oaks that surround the campus and the strength that our mascot implies — the students of the 1987-88 school year have preserved in keeping the Green Oaks tradition of winning alive. The accomplishments throughout the year have brought honors to the school — through the football team, the boys' and girls' basketball teams, the JROTC and through the endeavors of faculty and students to make our school known as an institution of learning.

THIS IS THE LEGACY
WE WISH TO KEEP ALIVE FOR YEARS TO COME.

Each day carried a message — there's fun in work and play.

Read — It is an avenue to success.

We must continue to do our best . . .

Because it is our LEGACY.

In Memory
of
Mrs. Joicy Wilson
Registrar

People are of two kinds, and she
Was the kind I'd like to be.
Some preach their virtues, and a few
Express their lives by what they do;
That sort was she. No flowery phrase
Of glibly spoken word of praise
Won friends for her. She wasn't cheap
Or shallow, but her course ran deep,
And it was pure. You know the kind.
Not many in life you find,
Whose deeds outrun their words so far
That more than what they seem, they are.

STUDENT LIFE

A peaceful moment in the square;
Celebration at a football game,
Sorting through files and a computer lesson are all a part of a day in the life of a Giant.

Student Life

It happened everyday
the same way;
locker breaks,
gym class,
explanations,

Creating,
experimenting,
interacting
rapping,
concentrating,
group-relating
and Club meetings.

Life around the campus
was a blend of
Casual moments to enjoy
the company of classmates,
instructions, athletics, and fun things to do.

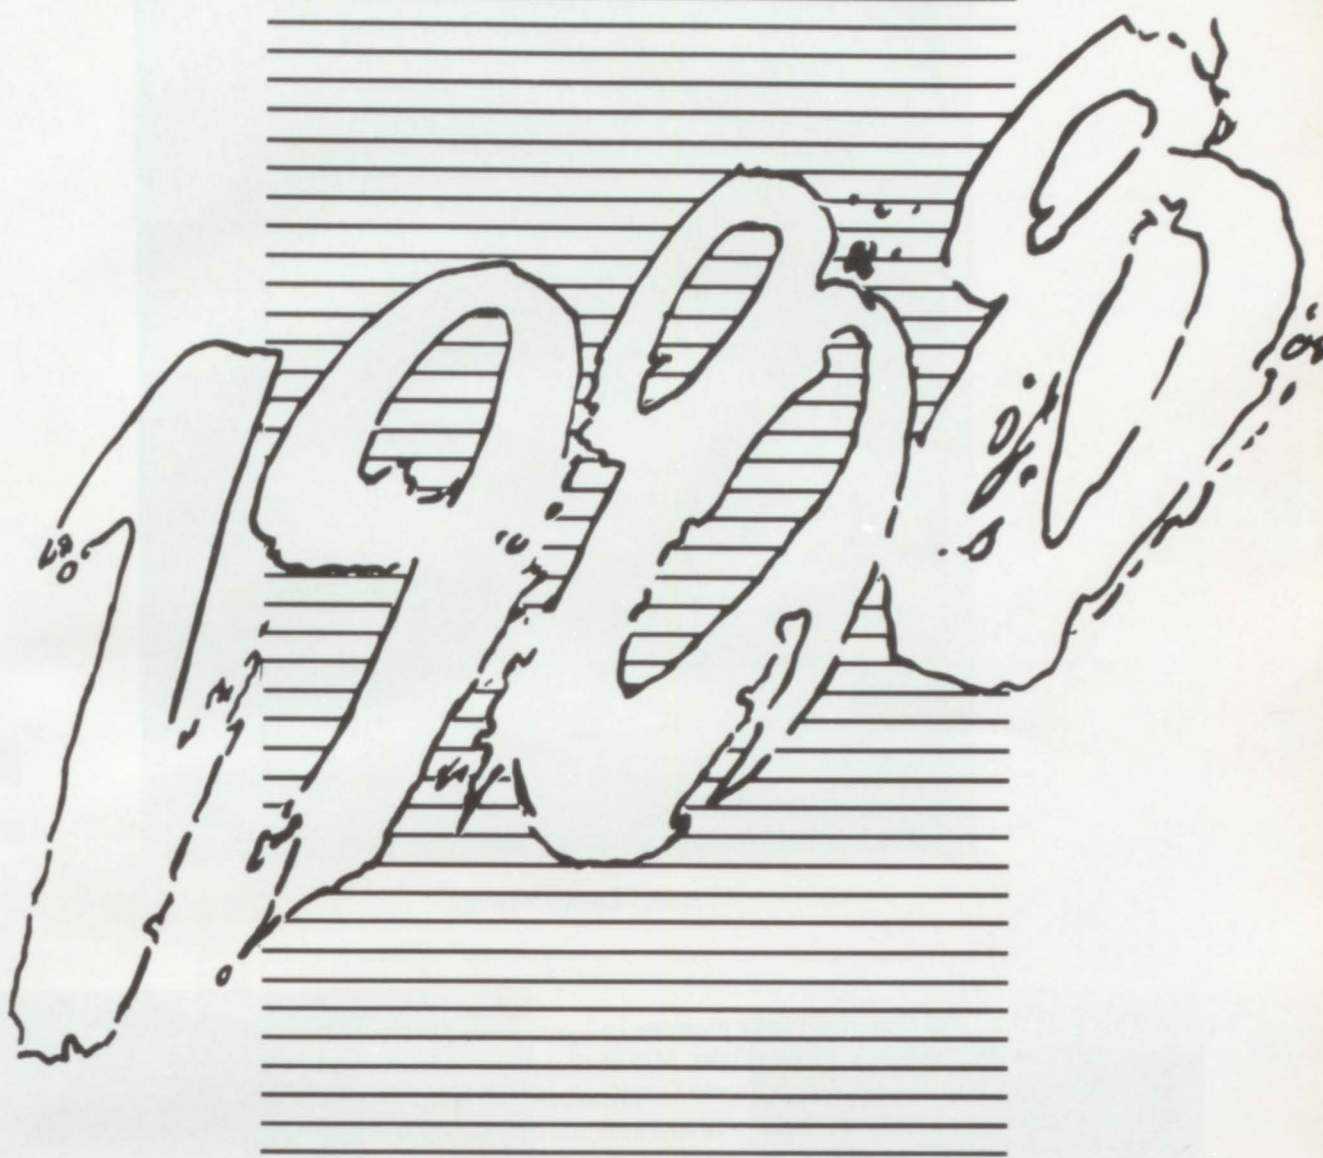

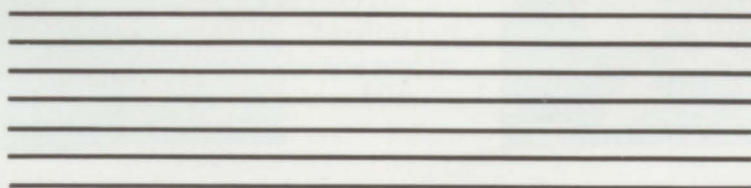

We rewarded ourselves with a little fun and relaxation.

ACTIVITIES

Focus on . . . Mr. and

Carlos Wade

This year the 1988 Greenleaf took pleasure in focusing on Mr. and Miss Green Oaks, Mr. Carlos Wade and Miss Aubra Jeanette Gantt. These honorable titles were bestowed upon these students because of their outstanding leadership, academic achievement, popularity and participation in many school activities throughout their school years at Green Oaks.

Carlos Wade was very active in sports. He played on the varsity football team and basketball. He was a member of the Student Council, SAD (Students Against Drugs) Club and President of the Egalitarians.

Miss Green Oaks

Aubra Jeanette Gantt

Aubra was chaplain of the Student Council and a captain in the Junior ROTC program. She was a member of the Biology Club, Elites and president of the 4-H Club. Each year Aubra has served as a member of the Homecoming Court. In her freshman year, she was Military Ball Queen. In her sophomore year, she was Sophomore Maid and in her junior year, she was JROTC Sweetheart. The climax of it all was to be honored in her senior year as Miss Green Oaks.

A Night to Remember

Left to Right: Ronnie Morris, Roovelroe Swan, Ardie Smith, Troy Franklin.

The gymnasium at Green Oaks was magically transformed into a wonderland for the coronation of Mr. and Miss Green Oaks. With performances by the Southern University Dance Troupe, Green Oaks Stage Band and JROTC Honor Guard to the royal toast, the Miss Green Oaks Song by Mr. Harvey and the gallant escorts made the night one to remember.

Left to Right: Stephen Brooks, William Holt, Ricky Ford, Kelvin Sherman.

The Egalitarians sponsors an Annual pageant that gives the male students of Green Oaks to display good looks and talent. This is one event that is eagerly anticipated by the female population as well as the participants. This year's pageant was larger than ever and there was an excellent display of talent. These young men learn to develop poise, good speaking skills and how to present themselves to an audience.

Assemblies and Talent Shows

Students at Green Oaks participated in and enjoyed attending assemblies and school sponsored talent shows throughout the year. The garden at the Barnwell Center was the setting for a forum where the students talked with the mayor and other city officials.

Wipe Out '87 was the theme for the talent show where Danny Whitaker, Jose Dorsey and Company performed a Rap. Damon Davis, Derrick Smith, and Robert Thomas did a lip-sync under the watchful eye of Mrs. Glover.

Members of the Southern University dance team performed one of their famous interpretations.

Principal — Mr. Tom James

Mr. James has served as head administrator of Green Oaks for the past fifteen years. His tenure was interrupted briefly last school year when he took a leave of absence. As principal his responsibilities were many and seemed to be never-ending, yet he always found time to enjoy the students.

Mr. James' role as leader of the school also made him the preserver of tradition and the legacy of achievement in spite of adversity. He will be remembered by the many students who have passed through the hallowed halls of Green Oaks High School.

Mr. James takes a few minutes to chat with Tony Franklin.

Assistant Principal, Mr. Huey J. Hunt, spent many hours working with students, individually and in groups. His main responsibility was to ensure the enforcement of Board and School policies in dealing with student discipline. He also worked with the principal in scheduling games, club activities and other extra curricular events.

Assistant Principals

The Assistant principal responsible for instruction and curriculum is Mr. John Baldwin. A lover of adventure and travel, he has traveled through most European countries. Mr. Baldwin uses his administrative skills and leadership so as to promote the education development of each student.

Together he and Mr. Hunt were immeasurable help in assisting Mr. James direct the total program of the school.

Office Personnel

Heaven help the school that does not have an efficient office staff. These people, to say the least, are indispensable. Staying in the background the office staff controlled many functions of the school. The attendance clerk, registrar, Bookkeeper, receptionist and secretaries were responsible for part of the overall operation of the school.

The library provided a place for students to study, do research, find interesting reading for relaxation and to use the current periodicals for up-to-date information. Mrs. Ruby Horton, librarian, provided the assistance.

Counselors and Librarian

The counselors assisted students in planning class schedules, career and college choices and other general and personal problems they had. Under their skillful attention, many students were able to make plans for a rewarding future.

Pictured at top Mr. Nathaniel Harvey, Sophomore and Junior Counselor and Mrs. Bobbie Kendrick, Freshman and Senior Counselor talk with Dorothy Williams. The responsibility of preparing tasteful and nutritious lunches that would appeal to a generation of "fresh" food lovers could prove to be an awesome task. Mrs. Johnson and her staff faced this giant task daily. The freshly baked breads and pastries only complimented the delicious entrees. A salad bar was a welcome addition to the lunch program.

Custodial Staff

Two of the most important facets of the school are the transportation of students to and from the campus and keeping the grounds and buildings clean and comfortable. The bus drivers and custodial staff provided these services with a smile. Ninety-five percent of the students were transported each day.

The bus drivers also served to take students on field trips, band rallies, football games, basketball games and other sports events.

Christmas Brought About a Cheerful and Giving Spirit

The door decoration contest sponsored by the Student Council produced a series of joyous messages at Christmas time. Food, toys and games collected by the Journalism classes were used to make gift baskets for some families in the school community.

ORGANIZATIONS

The Student Council chose a number of spectacular activities for projects this school year. In addition to the usual Homecoming events they sponsored the Sweetheart Contest, Door Decoration Contest, Can food drive, Treat bags for Halloween, Continental Breakfast for teachers and an assembly celebrating the Constitution. In November, they attended the Louisiana Association of Student Councils in Thibodeaux.

The Green Oaks band made great strides during the year. Not only was it a big hit during half time at football games and pep rallies but on other occasions as well. They participated in parades in Natchitoches during the Christmas Lighting, New Orleans for Mardi Gras and several events.

The long hard drills and practice sessions of late summer paid great dividends for the marching Giants.

The band goes through some intricate steps during halftime.

Piano Club

The piano club was organized this year through the efforts of several interested students and the sponsor/teacher Mrs. Sandra Wilson. Composed of members from the piano classes the students gave recitals in the fall and the spring.

Members, Seated: Vidallia Lewis, Rynecia Whitehead. Standing: Christa Thomas, Trinetta Gray, Gentry Vinson, Mrs. Wilson, Clifton Roberts, Kenneth Scott, Tina Alexander, Kaisha Dixon.

Jazz Band

The Jazz Band was another new group in the music department this year. It was composed of students who had an interest in jazz and wanted to play that type music in addition to the regular marching band. They, too, were an immediate hit with the students. Members were Dertrich Phillips, Derrick Cooper, Sebastian Edwards, Nara Dunlap, Refus Combs, Vincent Forcheon, Lezeka Armstrong, Levert Kissie, William Tyler, Lornel Gipson, Eric Rogers, Billy Johnson, Tanya Thomas, Derrick Smith.

String Class

Members of the string class included Standing: Jacqueline Thomas, Repunda Jones, Treshell Murff, Cynthia Murff and Demarcus Williams. The class was taught by Mr. Lorenza Williams. They gave several performances during the year. The members played for the Christmas and Spring concerts were a delight to the audiences.

The Choir was given a new direction this year. Mrs. Sandra Wilson, who is in her second year as choir directress, was very selectable in naming persons to perform with the group. They received excellent ratings in competition in local and regional levels. They joined the band and orchestra in giving the Spring musical.

JROTC Drill Teams

Precision, a bit of theatrics and unique commands were the methods used by both male and female drill teams as they thrilled many spectators during the year. As they marched in parades, preformed at football games, homecoming activities and other events the crowds waited in eager anticipation to see an outstanding display of footwork and rifle exchange.

Cadet Major Angela Miller, Commander of the female team and Cadet Major Johnny McCarter took the teams through many hours of practice before they perfected their routines. Both teams have trophies as rewards for the hard work.

The JROTC members took part in activities that complemented the total program of the school. Above the female drill team practiced for a parade. Below left: the color guard took part in an activity celebrating Constitution Week and right Lt. Col. Mebane help two cadets sharpen their firing skills.

Leading the cheering for all competition sports were the Green Oaks High School Cheerleaders. During the football season these young ladies and gents were a familiar sight on the sidelines encouraging the crowd to cheer the team to victory.

When Basketball season rolled around they continued to manifest the same type of enthusiasm when the boys and Lady Giants played.

On game days they could be seen displaying signs and slogans to promote the school spirit . . . KEEPING THE LEGACY ALIVE.

District 2AAAA Champions

The Lady Giants completed another successful year finishing as District Champions and a start on the road to the State finals. The '87 season was ended with them returning from State competition with the second place trophy. Under the capable direction of Coach Willie Stevens a basketball dynasty is being created and the legacy continues.

The team ranked number one for three weeks and was in top five entire season.

The Lady Giants were invited to play in the Gatorade Hall of Fame Classic.

Pam Bolton joined the staff last year as an Assistant and brought to the team a wealth of experience.

The rugged competition of District play has helped to develop and refine the great athletic ability and skills of the Lady Giants.

The Green Oaks Giants, under the supervision of Coaches Willie Stringer and Aldon Kelly, made great strides this year. They have clinched a play-off spot and are looking forward to meeting the top teams of the state in New Orleans. Tony Williams, Renard Robinson, Thatcher Kelly, Roovelroe Swan, and Anthony Gaines scored in double figures for each game.

With Tony Williams, captain of the team making 36 points, the Giants scored over one hundred against Natchitoches-Central.

The entire squad is composed of Sophomores and Juniors so next year the record should read 30-0.

Basketball Highlights

Thatcher Kelly takes an outside shot for three points.

Airlines defense was not strong enough to stop the Giants from scoring.

Football Highlights

1990

A large, stylized graphic of the year '1990' is centered on the page. The numbers are rendered in a bold, outlined font with a 3D effect, as if they are floating or emerging from a background of horizontal lines. The lines are more densely packed behind the numbers and become sparser towards the top and bottom of the page. The overall style is reminiscent of a technical drawing or a graphic design from the late 1980s or early 1990s.
